The English Discipline at Fisk University is seeking candidates for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. The University invites applicants and nominations. Applicants at the assistant professor level must have a promising research agenda and a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching. Applicants at the associate professor level must have an excellent record in research and teaching.

Starting Date: August 10, 2014

Responsibilities: Position includes teaching primarily in the area of American Literature with opportunities to teach in the areas of African American Literature and the Women and Gender Studies area. The successful applicant will also be expected to be active in scholarship and publications and to participate in service for the University community.

Qualifications: Applicant must have a Ph.D. in English Literature, or related fields from an accredited institution with 3-5 years teaching experience. Applicant must have a successful teaching record using various pedagogical techniques and methodologies as well as excellent interpersonal and computer skills. Instruction and scholarship in African American Literature and Women and Gender studies is a plus.

Salary: Commensurate with experience and qualifications

To Apply: Please submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, your teaching philosophy, a 2 -3 page description of proposed or current research project and contact information for three professional references. Letters of recommendation may be requested from referees at a later date.

Application Materials should be sent electronically to: careers@fisk.edu

Electronic submission is required for all materials. To expedite processing, please reference the position title in the subject line of your message.

Fisk University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All persons will be offered employment and promotion on the basis of qualifications and capabilities without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, qualified ADA recognized disability or veteran status. In addition, the University sponsors and encourages an environment of affirmative action toward equal opportunity in all divisions affecting the recruiting, hiring and promotion of employees at all levels.