Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to

B. Child Support Paid

The student, the student’s spouse (if married), or one of the parents included in the household paid child support in 2014. Please indicate who in the household paid child support in 2014 by selecting the appropriate check-box.

☐ Student
☐ Spouse
☐ Parents

List below the names of the persons who paid the child support, the names of the persons to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the children support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support was paid in 2014 for each child. If more space is needed, provide a separate page that includes the student’s name and ID number at the top.

Note: If the school has reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, the school may require additional documentation, such as:

- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided;
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or
- Copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.
