MARCUS GARVEY MEMORIAL COLLECTION, 1887 - 1940
PAPERS, 1776 - 1971

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Marcus Garvey: Born August 17, 1887 in St. Ann's Bay, Jamaica, West Indies, to Marcus and Sarah (Richards) Garvey.

Education: Public and Private Schools, Jamaica, British West Indies

Married: Amy Ashwood, December 25, 1919, divorced, June, 1922
Amy Jacques, July, 1922

He organized other organizations:

Negro Factories Corporation
Africas Communities League
President General, Universal Negro Improvement Association, 1919-23

1927 - Deported to Jamaica after serving a prison term in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary on charges that he had used the United States mail to defraud prospective investors.

From 1927 to 1935 he returned to Jamaica and was involved in politics but to no great extent.

1940 - He passed away in London.
The Marcus M. Garvey collection was given to the Fisk University Library in 1975 by his son, Julius M. Garvey. The Literary Executor of the collection is Marcus Garvey, Jr. Mrs. Garvey retains the literary rights during her lifetime. It was secured by the efforts of Dr. John H. Clarke.

The collection is that of Amy Jacques Garvey, who was "literally the archivist of the Garvey Movement." It contains ___ items, and 18 boxes.

Included are a newspaper clippings, files kept by Amy Jacques of the Universal Negro Improvement Association from the middle twenties and forties; newspaper and magazine articles; correspondence to Amy Garvey from W. E. B. DuBois, George Padmore, African Publishing Corporation, George S. Schuyler, Mahatma K. Gandhi, J. Edgar Hoover, Albert Gomes, Barrister D. J. Spencer Pitt, A. Phillip Randolph, and Adam Clayton Powell, Jr.

Practically completed files of the Universal Negro Improvement Association publications, the Negro World, and the Black Man magazine.

Through the Freedom of Information Act, as amended in 1974 by Public Law 93-502, and the Department of Justice regulations concerning the production of records (28 C.F.R. 16. 1-10), the collection has documents and correspondence relating to his imprisonment from the Department of Justice files and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Also, are Garvey prison letters, 1925-27.

Photographs, the origin of the African flag, financial statements, speeches, a scrapbook, and certificates also comprise the collection.

The collection was processed by Anna P. Floyd.
