Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity

Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity was founded in Philadelphia on May 15, 1904. This unique group of professional men has the distinction of being the first organization among African Americans whose membership is limited to graduates of colleges and universities. The founders were Henry Minton, Algernon B. Jackson, Richard J. Warrick, Edwin C. Howard, Eugene T. Hinson and Robert J. O’bele. This founding group became known as Alpha Boule of Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity. The Fraternity was named Sigma Pi Phi because the Greek letters were the initials of words which translated into “congeniality, tolerance, and perseverance.” The purpose of the Fraternity is three-fold: “to bring together in close sacred and fraternal union graduates of colleges and professional schools, who have achieved eminence in their communities and in the nation; and who manifest superior qualification and attainments, to further cultivate and develop within each member his best inherent qualities and potentialities; and to give aid and comfort to each other, when needed, to seek and establish, by concerted action, those goals which promote the greatest good for the entire membership, and which cannot be accomplished by individual efforts.”

Group 1 of the Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity Archives consist of one hundred and twenty archival boxes dating from 1908 – 1980. These records were retrieved from the office of George Redd (former Grand Grammateus) at Fisk University in 1986. The Collection is basically divided into two group, the Grand Boule and the Sub-Ordinate Boules. The Grand Boule contains mostly correspondence, reports, financial records, constitution and by-laws, proceedings from national conventions (1911-1978) newsletters and Boule journals. The Sub-Ordinate Boules (Alpha-Beta Gamma) consist of correspondence, reports, minutes of meetings, lists and miscellaneous materials. The collection is of great historical value and is now available for scholarly use.
