Adjunct Lecturer
French

The Department of Arts and Languages at Fisk University is seeking candidates for part-time positions teaching French. The University invites applications.

Starting Date: August 10, 2013

Responsibilities: Position includes teaching primarily in the Discipline of Modern Foreign Languages, in both beginning and intermediate French courses.

Qualifications: Applicant must have a M.A. in French or a related field and must have a successful teaching record as well as good interpersonal and computer skills. Application must have a minimum of 3 years of college instruction.

Salary: Notification with appointment

To Apply: Please submit a brief statement requesting employment, availability for teaching times, and curriculum vitae with references noted. The submission of most recent student evaluations are a plus.

Applications should be addressed to:
Dr. Lean’tin Bracks
Chair of the Department of Arts & Languages
1000 17th Ave North
Nashville, TN 37208
lbracks@fisk.edu

Fisk University is an Equal Opportunity Institution