

ARNA WENDELL BONTEMPS COLLECTION
PAPERS, 1934 - 1965

Scope Note

Papers, 1934 - 1965

The Arna Wendell Bontemps Collection numbers 112 manuscript boxes of his work as the Head Librarian at Fisk (1943 - 1964), and as a professional writer. The collection contains the following; correspondence; accounts, bills, receipts; writings; library material; classroom material; committee and organization items; newspaper clippings; photographs; memorabilia; miscellaneous material; and collected material.

Arna Wendell Bontemps
(1902 - 1973)

Arna Wendell Bontemps was born October 13, 1902 in Alexandria, Louisiana. Bontemps was raised and educated in California. He received his B.A. degree from Pacific Union College in 1923 and M.A. degree from the University of Chicago in 1943. From 1924 to 1931, he taught in the New York City School System. He then went on to teach in Huntsville, Alabama from 1931 to 1934. In 1943, he came to Fisk to become Head Librarian. Bontemps served as the Head Librarian of the university for 22 years. He retired from this position in 1965, and left Fisk to become a professor at the University of Chicago. He went to Yale University in 1969 to take a position as curator of James Weldon Johnson Collection and visiting professor of English Literature. In 1971, he returned to Fisk to be writer-in-residence.

Bontemps is still best known as a writer. Part of the Harlem Renaissance movement, his first novel God Sends Sunday, was published in 1931. Certain literary historians assert that this novel marked the end of the Harlem Renaissance movement. He was the author of several publications, including juvenile and adult fiction and non-fiction. He was awarded the Julius Rosenwald Fund Fellowship in 1938, and later the John Simon Guggenheim Fellowship in 1942. He has been listed in Who's Who In America, Current Biography, and Encyclopedia Of World Biography.

He married Alberta Johnson on August 26, 1926. They had six children, Joan Marie, Paul Bismark, Poppy Alberta, Camille Rudy, Constance Rebecca, and Arna Alex.
