

The Office of Career and Development Fisk Executive Leadership Program

INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE OF F.E.L.P

The Fisk Executive Leadership Program is a premier and transformative education program designed to prepare and provide students with authentic work opportunities, while developing necessary professional skills. Students will practice utilizing essential habits to be competitive in the 21st-century job market and use economic independence by contributing towards the cost of their education. The Fisk Executive Leadership Program will allow students to gain valuable work experience and secure opportunities that will help cover college expenses.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

F.E.L.P is open to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who are looking to prepare for internships/experiential learning opportunities. F.E.L.P is an 8–10-week program that is offered each semester and participants will attend professional development workshops throughout the semester. Note: Program participants will be 25 per semester.

OVERVIEW OF PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Receive a training stipend for participation and engagement
- Receive professional training and development
- Receive professional development hours and volunteer in a service-learning project
- Gain real-world work experience and access to various industries
- Develop twenty-first century work skills
- Become competitive and marketable in a changing world
- Assist with college expenses and costs
- Participate in networking and teambuilding opportunities