History

Founded in 1866, Fisk University is coeducational, private, and one of America's premier Historically Black Universities. The first Black college to be granted a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society, Fisk serves a diverse student body with students from 40 states and 6 foreign countries. There are residence halls for men and women. The focal point of the 40-acre campus and architectural symbol of the university is Jubilee Hall, the first permanent building for the education of Blacks in the South, named for the internationally renowned Fisk Jubilee Singers, who continue their tradition of singing and sharing classic Negro spirituals along with other genres of music from African, Brazil, African American and other diverse cultures.

From its earliest days, Fisk faculty and alumni have been among America's intellectual leaders providing leadership in several fields including medicine, science, art, humanities, religion, literature, sociology and philosophy. A few examples of the many prominent Fisk alumni include:

MISSION STATEMENT

Fisk University produces graduates from diverse backgrounds with the integrity and intellect required for substantive contributions to society. Our curriculum is grounded in the liberal arts, and our faculty and administrators emphasize the discovery and advancement of knowledge through research in the natural and social sciences, business and the humanities. We are committed to the success of scholars and leaders with global perspective.

TAGLINE

“Cultivating Scholars and Leaders One by One”

VISION STATEMENT

Be the best small liberal arts institution in the United States

CORE VALUES

(Our success is in the details)

The D.E.T.A.I.L.S. represent Fisk's core values. Our values reflect our overall ethical and moral engagement. We, the FISK Family, seek to internalize these principles and apply them in our day-to-day work and overall lives.

Diversity We believe that our individual differences are a collective strength. We support and encourage diversity of opinion, of culture. Diversity aids us in building a collective wisdom that results in more powerful and relevant solutions to our challenges.

Excellence We believe that excellence is the result of a lifelong pursuit of the highest standards. At FISK, our collective quest is to earn merit through commitment to rigorous scholarship, cultural literacy and high ethical standards.

Teamwork We believe that individuals achieve high standards when supported by the collective work of others. We reinforce this value by constantly creating opportunities to collaborate both inside and outside of traditional alliances on campus, in the surrounding community and around the world.

Accountability We believe that we must hold ourselves to the highest standard when we make commitments. Consistent and measurable follow-through is essential for individual and team progress. Forthright about our successes and shortcomings, we position FISK for continuous achievement and improvement.

Integrity We believe that it is our responsibility to prepare young people to be stewards of an ever-changing global community that means that we must model behavior grounded in truthfulness and compassion.

Leadership We believe that leaders are obligated to empower those around them. We are consistent, transparent and accountable. Through our words and behaviors, we encourage others to exhibit these same attributes.

Service We believe that service is our ability to give the gift of knowledge to humanity. As we serve, we become transformed and so are our communities.
