

Naming Opportunities

Allied Sciences Building – Fisk University

Nashville, Tennessee

The Allied Sciences Building at Fisk University represents a transformative investment in our academic community. By joining this initiative as a naming sponsor, you will align your legacy with the next generation of diverse STEM leaders.

Each naming opportunity provides recognition throughout the life of the building while supporting state-of-the-art learning and research spaces that will empower Fisk students for generations to come.

Naming Opportunities

As an esteemed partner in this initiative, you will have the opportunity to name specific areas within the building, aligning your organization's or individual's legacy with the next generation of STEM leaders.

"Supporting the Allied Sciences Building honors Fisk's legacy of scientific achievement while creating opportunities for future generations of diverse scientists and healthcare professionals. Your investment makes a tangible difference in the lives of our students."

— Crystal Churchwell Evans, Vice President of Development and Alumni Affairs
